The Newspaper Libel and Registration Act, 1881 (44 and 45 Vict., ch. 60, s. 1) provides that:-

The word 'Newspaper' shall mean any paper containing public news, intelligence, or occurrences, or any remarks or observations therein printed for sale, and published in England or Ireland periodically, or in parts or numbers at intervals not exceeding twenty-six days between the publication of any two such papers, parts, or numbers. Also any paper printed in order to be dispersed, and made public weekly or oftener, or at intervals not exceeding twenty-six days, containing only or principally advertisements.

The word 'occupation' when applied to any person shall mean his trade or following, and if none, then his rank or usual title, as esquire, gentleman.

The phrase 'place of residence' shall include the street, square, or place where the person to whom it refers shall reside, and the number (if any) or other designation of the house in which he shall so reside.

The word 'proprietor' shall mean and include as well the sole proprietor of any newspaper, as also in the case of a dividend proprietorship the persons who, as partners or otherwise, represent and are responsible for any share or interest in the newspaper as between themselves and the persons in like manner representing or responsible for the other shares or interests therein and no other person.
